19th Century William IV Rosewood Globe Terrestrial Globe On Stand

2 950 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Rosewood

Diameter : 42

Height : 92

Description

Attractive early 19th century rosewood globe from the William IV period. This beautiful early 19th century rosewood globe from the William IV period is not just a functional object; it is a stately piece that beautifully combines history and craftsmanship. The globe stands on a trifunctional base, with elegantly turned and gadrooned legs and intricately carved borders that enhance its aesthetic appeal. The supporting column is fluted and adorned with exquisite carved decorations and brass fittings, showcasing the quality of the craftsmanship. The globe itself displays a world map by Columbus Jordglobe of Sweden (1940).The globe itself displays a world map by Columbus Jordglobe of Sweden (1940), illustrating shipping lanes and ocean currents, making it both educational and visually

Dealer

Rietveld Antiques
19th and 20th century antiques and decorative pieces
Mobile : +31624758505

Domeinenstraat 20
Mill 5451

captivating. This remarkable piece is in excellent condition, a testament to the quality of its materials and rich history. The combination of craftsmanship and beautiful design makes it an exceptional item for any collector or design enthusiast.