Description

This table features a remarkable, finely crafted 17th-century Tuscan-style marquetry top in light and dark wood. The geometric and symmetrical decoration is a testament to the finest cabinetmaking. This wood marquetry is inspired by the Tuscan tradition of intarsia, a technique that has been predominant in Italy since the Renaissance.The 19th-century wooden base is adorned with gilded threads and openwork motifs in a neo-Renaissance style. An elegant and balanced ensemble.
