

Large Japanese Imari Oval Jardinieres - Matched Pair, Meiji C.1880, Arita

700 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

A superb pair of large Japanese Imari porcelain jardinieres, Meiji period, circa 1880. Each vessel is robustly potted in an elegant oval form and hand-painted in the traditional Imari palette of underglaze cobalt blue, iron red, and green enamel. The decoration features blossoming trees, garden fences, and stylized floral reserves, all executed with fine, lively brushwork. The painting is entirely hand-done, reflecting the best traditions of Meiji period Imari ware. Both jardinieres are unmarked, as is typical for large pieces of this type. Likely produced in the Arita region, Saga province, the historical center of Japanese Imari
