Description

Pair of vases. Bronze. Japan, Meiji period (1868-1912). Pair of bronze vases decorated with figurative elements and a band of gadroons. The necks are adorned with two oriental-style dragons in flight, while the bodies depict birds, branches, and fruit in various poses. Stylistically, they are similar to examples from private collections dating from the late 19th century. Weight: 5.45 kg. - Dimensions: 19x19x32 cm
