Description

Elegant and sumptuous, this pair of 19th-century candlesticks perfectly embodies the refinement of French decorative art. Crafted from finely chiseled gilt bronze, these seven-light candelabras are distinguished by their ornamental richness and fine detail. Each candlestick rests on a quadripod base richly decorated with Rocaille-style scrolls and foliage. The stems are supported by putti (cherub) figures, sculpted with charming realism and a lively expression, proudly holding the corolla-shaped light arms. The superbly crafted arms rise in dynamic arabesques, adorned with acanthus foliage and floral motifs. The high-quality gilding gives the ensemble a warm, radiant light, ideal for enhancing a reception table, console table, or fireplace. A highly decorative set that brings a touch of
