Description

Beautiful Provençal composition by the great Toulon painter Gérard PAMBOUDJIAN. This is an oil on canvas measuring 73cm x 50cm plus wooden frame 78cm x 55cm signed lower left. Born in Toulon, he participated very early in collective exhibitions including; the Salon de mai, Paris 1969, Salon des Indépendants in 1975, he will exhibit in major international capitals. His painting participates in the revival of a certain properly pictorial conception of painting with regard to the conceptualizing formalism of the 1970s. It gives primacy to the conflict between expression and matter in a dense figuration, most often compositions with characters. This very suggested nude has nothing vulgar, provocative, everything is in the suggestion or the play of impastos and transparencies give the sensuality of
