Description

Carved solid walnut cloakroom with numerous hooks and a beveled mirror. Decorated with fine carvings, scrolls, and fluting...

We find a large original beveled mirror, slightly pitted, surrounded by a basket-handle frame, topped with a crosspiece supporting five double hooks and held in place by openwork wooden elements in window decorations. This cloakroom is topped with a molded cornice. The sides are made of fluted uprights.

The bronze umbrella or walking stick bar is placed under the shelf.

Its functionality and warm color will make this Belle Époque cloakroom a highlight for your entrance.

Woodwork height: 2.27 m - Top width: 0.97 m and bottom width: 1.23 m. Delivery upon request;
