Description

Large decorative terracotta jar, made in Figueras (Spain) in the 1960s-1970s. Aged green patina imitating antique bronze, with relief decoration of Greco-Roman-inspired scenes: figures, Greek frieze, facing swans and stylized floral motifs. Model signed under the base (mark "SPAIN" intaglio). Typical work of the Catalan workshops of Figueras, renowned for their decorative pieces in a neo-antique style. Dimensions: Height: 40 cm Maximum diameter: 28 cm Good general condition, some signs of wear consistent with the original aesthetic. A piece of character ideal for a classic interior decoration, a gallery or a collection of vintage ceramics. Careful shipping
