

Silver-plated Egg Coddler, Early 20th Century

680 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silver metal

Diameter : 14.7 cm

Height : 23 cm

Description

What could be better than an English breakfast, with boiled eggs and toast! To capture the British spirit and the grace of Queen Elizabeth II, this egg coddler, in perfect working order, will add a touch of panache to your morning table. We highly recommend it for guesthouses for it can cook six eggs at once !

Made of silver-plated metal, it has two hallmarks, one "Chatelain" and the other "AL", part of which is illegible. The hot water outlet tap is made of horn. The whole is in very good condition.
