Description

Wooden sculpture depicting Christ from the second half of the 17th century, by Giacomo Bertesi. The sculpture features finely crafted details, particularly in the decoration of the red and blue robes with gold details. We note the artist's profound anatomical knowledge, which sculpted Christ in the act of resurrection with vivid realism and expressive content. Giacomo Bertesi (Soresina 1643 - Cremona 1710) was an Italian sculptor who mainly created wooden works of religious subjects. He worked mainly between Cremona and Spain. Dimensions with base: height 98 cm, width 50 cm, depth 30 cm. Dimensions without base: height 80 cm, width 50 cm, depth 30 cm.
