Description

Exceptional glass bowl called "Calcedonia" by Dino Rosin in Murano. Rare piece by the master glassmaker Dino Rosin who used the process called "calcedonia glass" which was invented in the 50s and fascinated the whole world. Rare glass technique with these multi-colored filaments of all beauty. An exceptional color panel. It looks like the bowl was cut into 3 parts with these transparent glass separations. Dino Rosin is a rare and highly rated artist, I leave you in screenshot the many pieces sold in rooms, the prices often reach peaks. Impressive dimensions: 50 cm long, 28.5 cm wide, 24 cm high and + 16 kilos!!!!!! Exceptional piece of glassware, rare "calcedonia" technique! Delivery method to be agreed taking into account the weight.
