Description

Plaster bust signed and dated by the sculptor Angelo Meani, representing a youthful face with a calm, frontal gaze. The modeling is sober, with a deliberately textured surface treatment and a green patina reminiscent of oxidized bronze. The subject, unidentified, is represented in a naturalistic manner, with attention paid to the facial features and neutral expression. The hairstyle and the volumes of the skull are treated with a certain stylization. The bust rests on a period wooden base. 20th century work. Signature "A. Meani" visible on the back or on the side (depending on position). Dimensions: L 20 x H 36 x D 21 cm
