Description

Set: Silver-plated alpaca (white metal) mirror and brush. Decorated with organic Art Nouveau ornaments. WMF, Art Nouveau, Germany, around 1900. Length 29.7 and 22.5 cm. Good condition, rubbed silvering. Württembergische Metallwarenfabrik, German manufacturer active from 1880 to the present day. Founded by Daniel Straub, it became the largest metalworking magnate at the beginning of the 20th century. It signed its works with a running ostrich inscribed in a lozenge or a frame enclosed by a semicircle. This animal was the heraldic mark of the Straub family. The individual and high-quality works earned the company numerous awards, including the Grand Prix at the exhibitions in Paris in 1900 and Turin in 1902. Free delivery within the European Union!
