

Empire Clock In Marble And Gilded Bronze, Early 19th Century

5 300 EUR

Signature : Laresche

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Length : 42

Height : 65

Depth : 16

Description

Important Empire clock in red griotte marble and gilt bronze representing "Cupid and Psyche" in bronze with brown patina. The dial is signed H.LARESCHE (Henry) Palais Royal in Paris.

Wire movement in perfect working order, and original key. The Palais Royal was one of the Parisian high places of watchmaking from 1780 until 1850. Henry Laresche was an active watchmaker between 1805 and 1815 at the Palais Royal in the Uffizi Gallery. Excellent condition.

Dealer

Antiquités Véronique Trindade

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 06 07 36 20 53

18, Avenue de la République

Beaune 21200