Description

An exquisite and unusually small Canton enamel cup and saucer set, finely crafted in the 19th century for the Vietnamese export market. The saucer measures just 9 cm in diameter, placing this piece among the rarest of its kind.

Richly decorated in vibrant famille-rose enamels, the saucer features a symmetrical floral garden interspersed with butterflies and blossoming branches, executed in bright greens, pinks, blues, and yellows. The matching cup echoes the same motif, with a delicately painted landscape and floral imagery. The interiors are glazed in a soft speckled pink enamel, a detail that enhances the overall charm of the piece.

This rare miniature form, paired with superb detail and preservation, sets this ensemble apart as a collector's highlight--an authentic gem in a
