Description

A beautiful and rare 17th-century wedding chest from the Tuscan-Roman area, suitable as a casket, made entirely of dark walnut with typical Central Italian features, both in the double-panel moldings and the rounded, "loaf-shaped" base. Its original top features coffer-shaped workmanship, reminiscent of 16th-century styles.This information allows us to date the object to the early 17th century, likely crafted by the artisan carpenter as a model for a wedding chest or jewelry box.Its dimensions are: 83 x 31 x 37 cm.We include a certificate of authenticity with the sale.The piece is in perfect condition and requires no restoration.For further information regarding the chest and our vast assortment of 17th-century furniture, please do not hesitate to contact us.
