Description

Silk scarf or square from Maison Hermès in Paris (approximately 90 x 90 cm), model "Demi Brigade de Fusiliers Marins - Nemours Département de Tlemcen" design by Hugo Grygkar, 1958. Red-burgundy color model. This scarf is in good general condition. Signed see photos. Please note: some stains (lipstick and/or foundation?) and yellowing on this scarf (barely visible), traces of folds, see photos (see red arrows). * The Hermès square is a square-shaped silk scarf, emblematic of the French house Hermès. Launched in 1937, it has become a classic and an icon of the brand, sometimes described, depending on the source, as timeless, transgenerational, or even mythical. This scarf, like the Kelly bag, the orange color specific to the brand, or the carriage of the logo, illustrates and
