Description

Oil on canvas depicting a richly dressed lady of quality. The young woman, with her hair styled in the late 17th century, is dressed in an embroidered bodice with red laces and a green velvet coat, worn over a pink satin dress. The face, delicately treated, stands out against a dark background. She wears a pair of diamond earrings, discreet but refined, her jewelry soberly underlines her rank and adds a touch of preciousness to the composition. Period carved giltwood frame, decorated with flowers in relief in the corners and on the sides. Dimensions with frame: approximately 90 x 78 cm Dimensions without frame: 72 x 61 cm
