Jean Levasseur (1935-2024), a French figurative painter from Le Havre, dedicated his life to celebrating the beauty of maritime landscapes. With a vivid palette and a warm touch, he captured the changing light of the Normandy coast, from the jetties of Le Havre to the beaches of Deauville. Located in the countryside but always facing the sea, he painted shores as one evokes a memory: with sincerity, poetry and a deep connection to the natural
