Description

Oil and sand on canvas 46 cm x 33 cm, countersigned on the back Claude Jouhanneau representing a composition rich in matter Sold with invoice-certificate. Painting from the 70s in perfect condition. Claude Jouhanneau (1931-2011) devoted with passion and great energy, sixty years of his life to his art, always in emotion and sincerity, without compromise, without submitting to anyone the instinctive force of his temperament. His work is situated between that of André Cottavoz - with whom he exhibited in the 60s - and, for certain works, the research of Eugène Leroy, although he will rarely dare to go as far as the disappearance of the subject in the matter. The subjects - studio window, landscapes, crowds - are often pretexts for a research around color, the vibration of light and matter
