Description

FRENCH CERAMIC Large holy water font with plain fire technic of production, earthenware with a black iridescent glaze. The front of the holy water font is molded with a relief motif of intertwined letters MA (for AVE MARIA?) under a crown. A shell crowns the top of the holy water font. Avignon ceramic factory ? Mid-18th century Perfect condition and very nice uniform and "silvered" glaze (these pieces are often broken and/or restored at the junction of the backplash and the holy water receptacle). Note a few micro chipping of the enamel at the edge of the holy water receptacleDimensions: 25,5cm high * 11,5cm wide and 7,5cm deep.
