Description

Fratelli Toso Murano Millefiori Paperweight -
Handcrafted, ca. 1950-1970

An exceptional mid-20th century Murano millefiori glass paperweight, attributed to the renowned Fratelli Toso workshop, Italy. This vibrant and meticulously crafted dome-form paperweight features an intricate, hand-laid mosaic of murrine canes in a rich palette of primary and secondary colors.

The design radiates concentrically from a central floral rosette, with tight rows of sunburst, star, floral, and geometric cane slices, showcasing outstanding Venetian glass artistry. The surface reveals subtle textural relief, indicating a traditional millefiori technique where individual glass canes were fused and shaped by hand, not molded or machine-pressed.
