Description

With its assertive silhouette and refined geometry, the Mito armchair reinterprets classic French inspiration through a decidedly contemporary lens. Designed by acclaimed designer Philip Nimmo, this limited-edition piece pays homage to architect André Arbus while exploring new forms of comfort and sophistication. The hand-finished wooden frame frames elegantly curved armrests, highlighted by bronze finials sculpted in a shape inspired by an antelope horn that add an organic yet elegant touch to this piece. Upholstered in a rich chocolate-toned fabric, the Mito combines texture, depth, and modernity. A lumbar cushion complements the wide, generously padded seat, providing exceptional comfort without compromising aesthetics. This armchair is an
