Description

We present this fantastic large vase, made in Florence, Italy, dating back to the 1980s. The vase is crafted from polychrome glazed ceramic. The eye-catching, classically styled decoration adorning each side of this vase is sure to catch the eye. Valiant warriors, seascapes, sailing ships, and lush vegetation make this vase a captivating and unique decorative element for your home. The vase features an FF mark on the base and is Made in Italy. Recognizable by the "Ceramiche Artistiche F.lli Fanciullacci" factory, founded in Montelupo Fiorentino by Raffaello Fanciullacci, a historic artistic ceramics factory that ceased production in 1988. Some of their works are now housed at the Faenza Ceramics Museum. This large and elegant vase would be an ideal addition to an entryway table, living room, or dining room.
