Description

Leaning on a square base dressed in a yellow-striped skirt dress with sheets holds a washerwoman's board in her right hand. The lacquering has no preparation and there are some color lapses that nevertheless do not alter the naive appearance of the sculpture, which has an immediate rendering in its simplicity and coarseness. It comes from the collections of a Milanese traveler and is in a good state of preservation.
