Description

We are presenting an outstanding pair of antique coral earrings plus a ring all mounted in 14K Gold. A very long pair of earrings of the half of the 19th century from the Abruzzi region (200 Km east of Rome). Most probably a wedding present. Corals was, and still are, considered of a good luck for the life and wedding protection. The big red Mediterranean coral drops and ovals are all faceted, an old coral finish used in the Abruzzi. For the ring we have to say that is very rare to find them together. The big Top is said "a specchio" (mirrored). Half of the 19th century from the Abruzzi region. 14 K Gold (touchstone tested). The goldsmith's hallmark is on the hooks. From a family collection in Florene. Despite the age they are in good condition. For the
