Description

Magnificent footed bowl in Bohemian crystal, marked Moser on the bottom. Crafted around the 1950s, this exceptional piece stands out for its remarkable quality and impressive dimensions: 33 cm in diameter and 20 cm in height. Clearly not part of a standard production line, it was most likely a custom-made model, designed for interior decoration or formal dining settings. The decoration in 24-carat gold leaf corresponds to the famous Lady Hamilton collection, created by Professor Heinrich Hussmann and inspired by the iconic figure of Emma Hamilton, muse and lover of the renowned Admiral Lord Nelson. The bowl is in very good overall condition, with no chips or cracks. There are slight signs of wear on the gilding, as well as minor scratches on the base, perfectly in keeping with the object's age and
