Description

Antique Carnelian Intaglio Ring - Allegorical Figure with Laurel & Hearts, Circa 1780-1830A fine antique ring set with a beautifully engraved oval carnelian intaglio depicting a classical allegorical figure. The female figure is shown kneeling, holding a laurel wreath beside a pedestal topped with two hearts--likely symbolising love, unity, or virtue.The gemstone is mounted in a plain bezel setting atop a charming three-wire gold shank, typical of late Georgian or early 19th-century construction. The ring is unhallmarked, as was common for period pieces, but tests as high-carat gold (likely 15ct-18ct).Item Details:Stone: Carnelian, intaglio engravedSetting: Plain bezel mountShank: Three-wire gold shankGold Purity: Not hallmarked, tests as 15ct-18ct gold
