

Early 19th Century Grandfather Clock

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Longcase clock from the early 19th century, marked 1821 (during the reign of Louis XVIII)
The particularity of this clock, beyond its very fine quality, is due to its decoration composed of the imperial eagle and a profile of Napoleon This clock is entirely in cherry wood with parts worked in the mass (for example the door). It is in perfect working order and has a rear escapement
Its dimensions are: 254 cm high, 47 at the widest (rounded lower part of the violin case) Delivery possible
