Description

Pair of gilt bronze and porcelain candlesticks - Louis XVI style, 19th century
Pair of finely chiseled gilt bronze and painted porcelain candlesticks decorated with winged cupids on a blue background. The circular porcelain base is decorated with colored scrolls, highlighted with a gilt net and encircled by a gadrooned bronze mount. Each stem is adorned with a hand-painted porcelain medallion, representing a putto in a bucolic setting. Quality work, in the style of Sèvres productions under the Second Empire. The bronze is attributable to Henri Picard
Height: 23.5cm
Condition: Very good general condition, some wear to the gilding.
