Description

Very beautiful still life with citrus fruits by the painter Pierre Anatole Ambrogiani born in Ajaccio in 1907 and died in 1985. Painter, sculptor, engraver. Based in the old quarter of Marseille. Friend of Marcel Pagnol and Jean Giono. Influenced in his painting by René Seyssaud. We also owe him this famous stamp posted in 1966 from St Paul de Vence. Here is a very beautiful representation of immense talent with this oil on cardboard representing a still life with lemon and various citrus fruits and a bottle of wine. Very pretty palette of colors, in very good condition! Signed! In the format of 61x41 cm. Visually magnificent!
