Description

Very beautiful oil on canvas by the painter of the Aven bridge group Louis Georges Eleonor Roy. known as: Louis Roy 1862-1907. Impressionist and synthetist movement! Here is a beautiful representation of his painting with this scene of Breton women in their typical headdresses and costumes! Canvas in good condition! Without a frame (maybe demarcated?) beautiful pictorial technique! Format 37x23cm. Visually very pleasant painting with a beautiful quality of work from the artist. Signed.
