Description

Oil on canvas depicting a young shepherd with his shepherd's crook in a bucolic setting at the top of the mountains. Signed on the right: JULES SALLES. BIOGRAPHY: Jules Salles is a French painter born in Nîmes on June 14, 1814 and died in the same city on December 30, 1900. Renowned first for his portraits, then for his genre scenes, he is also famous in Nîmes as a donor to the Jules Salles Gallery. After beginning his training at the drawing school in his hometown where he won a painting prize in 1839, he perfected his skills for three months at the Académie des Beaux-Arts in Nîmes with the Nîmes painter Numa Boucoiran, then moved to Paris to attend, thanks to Charles Jalabert and also for three months, the studio of Paul Delaroche. From then on, he traveled to Italy and visited the
