Description

Ivory Christ in a Carved Gilded Frame on Velvet - Late 19th Century - INRI A beautiful work of devotional art, this exquisite crucifix embodies the spiritual and artistic devotion of 19th-century French craftsmanship. Finely hand-carved from a luminous natural material--ivory, highly prized in sacred sculpture--the figure of Christ is rendered with exceptional anatomical precision and a reverent expression, hallmarks of the master artisans of Dieppe. His form is expressive, anatomically accurate, and imbued with quiet sorrow and grace. The crucifix is topped with a finely crafted INRI plaque, symbolizing the inscription placed above Jesus at the crucifixion: Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudeorum--"Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews." Framed in a carved wooden frame with traces of gilding and resting on a deep blue velvet background, this piece radiates spiritual depth and noble artistry. The rich tones of the velvet enhance the solemn presence of the crucifix, emphasizing its sacred symbolism and antique charm. Perfect for collectors of religious artifacts, period décor, or sacred art, this unique crucifix is not only a relic of Christian devotion but also a testament to the piety and artistic excellence of 19th-century French artisans. More than a decorative object, it is a sacred heirloom that brings history, faith, and art into your home. Don't miss the opportunity to own a one-of-a-kind piece that speaks to the soul. This antique is in good condition: the ivory figure is fully intact, and the details are remarkably well preserved. The wooden frame shows slight wear from age, with some losses in the gilded stucco and a subtle patina that enhances its authenticity and historical charm--proof of its 19th-century origins without compromising its integrity or elegance.
