Description

Limoges porcelain vase entirely hand-painted representing a pretty decoration of various flowers on a light background. This vase was made by the Pouyat factory in Limoges, it bears under its base the stamp deposited for the period from 1890 to 1932. We report a firing defect under the neck as well as a hair in the enamel (see photos), visible against the light without any seriousness, these defects are aggravated by the use of the flash at the time of the shooting. The price of our vase takes this into account.
