Description

Mixed technique by the Dutch painter Bob Lokhorst (1900-1972), representing a sinister portrait, titled "Under the bridges of Paris" and dated 1932. This could be a last representative of the "Apaches" of Paris at the end of the 19th century or a representative of the "zone" of Paris at that time. Under the paper work, treated with Indian ink and perhaps watercolored gouache, which is fixed on a support paper, a dedication / dedication to the painter Louis Margantin (1900-1965) and his wife Fernande. Signature of the artist on and under the work as well as at the bottom of the dedication. Period frame with some chips. Total dimensions: 29x37 cm
