Description

Entirely hand-knotted, pure wool, vegetable dyes, size: 2mx2m This carpet belongs to the nomadic tribes carpets of Iran. This type of carpet is hand-knotted in villages according to the ancient tradition. Nomadic tribes still knot their carpets in the open air. They are characterized by classic ornaments, which are arranged in straight, geometric patterns and often adorned with warm colors interspersed with naive ivory motifs. Their cultural and traditional origins have made them a unique character that embodies ancient Persia.
