Description

After A de Neuville by J Véray: huge oil on canvas known as the attack at dawn (1870) The scene is set in a French town in the Jura, near the Swiss border. A bugler sounds the alarm, the French troops (Algerian riflemen and members of the mobile guard) rush from an inn to defend themselves against the advancing Prussians. Opposite the inn we see a second-hand goods stall. Signed by the artist lower right. Gilded frame. Good condition. H100 X 164.
