Description

Artist: Soleil By Marce Tuyens Period: 20th century Style: Design 50s-60s Condition: Perfect condition Material: Wool Width: 215 cm Height: 150 cm Depth: 0.5 cm Georges Chaudoir, with the active help of his wife Suzanne Perot, is considered the renovator of the art of tapestry, once so developed in Brussels, but he is also, alas, the last representative of this activity which made Brussels famous for many centuries. In 1910, he took over the workshop of Arthur Lambrechts, founded in 1878, almost a hundred years after the closure of the workshop of Jacques Van der Borch, the last representative of the ancient tradition. After his death, Suzanne Perot, with the help of one of his daughters, Georgette Lambin-Chaudoir, and his grandson Michel Borin, a decorator who graduated from the École d'Art and Métiers d'Etterbeek, continued this business until the death of Suzanne Perot. This is how the last Brussels manufacture ended, which alone had the right to use the BB (Bruxella in Brabantia) brand surrounding the red shield of the Brussels master tapestry makers and which can be found in the works of masters such as Leyniers, Van der Borcht, Reydam, or Van der Dussen.

In keeping with tradition, this magnificent tapestry has undergone a thorough cleaning by our experts at the Artisanal Workshop of the Galerie Lissier. It is now ready to adorn your interior.
