Description

Important oil painting on canvas depicting the Holy Family during the flight into Egypt interpreted here with touching humanity and a sense of movement. The Virgin Mary, wrapped in a large blue cloak and pink tunic, leads the scene with a gentle gesture, while Saint Joseph, in a mustard robe and dark cloak, follows her with a walking stick and a gaze turned towards her. Among them the young baby Jesus, in a light robe with a red belt, walks barefoot, holding onto his mother, in an affectionate and protective gesture. Above the scene, a beam of divine light descends from the sky, symbol of celestial protection, surrounded by a choir of cherubs with expressive faces. The spiritual atmosphere is strengthened by the softness of the volumes, the elegance of the drapery and the chromatic
