

Art Deco Dining Room

5 900 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Important Art Deco period dining room (Ca 1930), composed of a table with 4 extensions, 6 chairs and 2 arm chairs, a large display cabinet with double doors and warped glass, a large sideboard topped with a large pink marble breccia. The amboyna burl associated with mahogany. The very elegant chiseling typically Art Deco. The first choice pink breccia. The table which opens to accommodate up to 12 people. When the table is closed, it is covered with a custom-cut glass shelf. The closed oval table measures: 158x120cm The sideboard measures: 228x65x110.5cm The display cabinet measures: 132x 43x175cm Each of the 4 extensions measures: 50x120cm

Dealer

Jacob Norden Fine Antiques

Musical instruments

Tel : 0032477349513

Waterloo 50703