Description

A fine handpainted tea caddy or ginger jar by Herend, Hungary, decorated in the sought-after "Siang Rouge" (Red Dynasty) pattern, 20th century. The body and lid are finished in a deep rust-red ground with alternating white panels, each featuring stylized floral and foliate scrolls in fine gilding.

The "Siang Rouge" pattern was conceived as an homage to Japanese Imari and Chinese Qing dynasty porcelain of the 18th century. The rich color palette and intricate ornamentation reflect Herend's
