Description

Stunning pair of 925 sterling silver candelabras with a sculptural and slender design. The aerodynamic forms unfold into tall trilobed structures, featuring flared feet and upward-stretching arms that support two tulip-shaped bobeche. The focal point of each candelabra is adorned with a blue glass cabochon, set between the two arms like a suspended celestial element. This detail adds a touch of color of great finesse and creates an elegant contrast with the polished surface of the silver. This pair of candelabras embodies a perfect balance between functional form and expressive tension, in a synthesis that evokes both futuristic design and modernist biomorphism. Dimensions: Height: 25.8 cm Width: approximately 21 cm Weight:

1.360 gr.
