Paris Porcelain Sugar Bowl Circa 1810-1820

120 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Porcelain

Height : 12,5 cm

Description

Empire porcelain sugar bowl. The sugar bowl is decorated with a deep burgundy background, gilding, and decorative motifs inspired by antiquity. One side features a dish of vegetables surrounded by garlands and masks, while the other shows winged creatures framing a classical crowned face. Handles in the shape of helmeted female heads are placed on each side.Attributed to the Darté Frères factory, Paris. Porcelain, hand-painted decoration, gilding. Height - 12.5 cm. Condition: very good, small firing defect, restoration to the lid, flaking of the paint layer.

Dealer

Ostade Antiques

Brussels based antique dealer specialised in 18th and 19th century antiques

Mobile : +32 486251211

Bruxelles 1030