Description

The creamer is decorated with a burgundy background and adorned with an elaborate composition of antique architectural elements, shields, torches, and musical instruments. The central motif is framed with garlands and ribbons, giving it a festive and triumphant character. The painting is done in a palette of green, white, orange, and gold, emphasizing the classical style of the piece. The handle is shaped like a swan's head, extending elegantly towards the gilded neck. Attributed to the Darté Frères factory, Paris. Porcelain, hand-painted decoration, gilding. Height - 13 cm. Good condition.
