Elipson, was a company founded in 1938, is the oldest brand specialized in the manufacture of high-end French acoustic speakers. Joseph Léon was the true creator of the company and its transformation towards acoustics. It was he who created and sculpted the Elipson sound by experimenting in all directions with staff shapes, sound reflectors, spheres, conches. Joseph Léon (1908-1984) gained professional recognition during the period 1940-1973, by equipping the entire ORTF,
