Description

Abstraction by Jacques Duthoo (1910 Tours - 1960 Paris) Oil on canvas, signed bottom right 35 x 48 cm 43,8 x 57 cm with the frame Jacques Duthoo was a painter, self-taught, passionate and attentive. Among his friends were other painters : Bauchant, Voyet, Maxime. The company of Georges Rouault led him to try his hand at painting and he exhibited in 1945 at the 57th Salon des Indépendants where he was noticed by Frank Elgar (Roger Lesbat) who encouraged him. Subsequently, the Galerie Denise René presented his work, and Duthoo exhibited at the Salon des Surindépendants and then at the Salon des Réalités Nouvelles. It was in 1951 that Colette Allendy offered Jacques Duthoo his first solo exhibition. Within this movement called Abstraction, Duthoo's work remains
