

Pair Of Officer's Pistols Signed Laroche In Paris, Former Monarchy.

4 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

PAIR OF OFFICER'S PISTOLS SIGNED LAROCHE À PARIS, Former Monarchy. 30098 Round barrels with side panels near the thunderbolt then entirely round, slightly blundered at the muzzle. They are engraved and gilded with a trophy of arms, the signature "Laroche / A Paris" and fleur-de-lis ribbons, all on a blued background. Barrel length 19.6 cm, with the breech tang 24.5 cm. Locks signed "La Roche Paris". Walnut mounts carved with corollas of foliage. Swan-neck hammers. Round bassinets. All hallmarked silver fittings decorated in relief with military trophies, foliage and flowers. Long-eared pommels. Caps representing a Turkish warrior. Whalebone ramrods with polished iron tips. Total length of each pistol 33.5 cm. France. Former Monarchy. Very good

Dealer

Bertrand Malvaux

Expert agréé par la CNES Chambre Nationale des Experts
Spécialisés

Tel : 02 40 73 36 00

Mobile : 06 07 75 74 63

22 rue Crébillon

Nantes 44000

condition, gilding of the barrels erased in places;
on one of the pistols: two trigger guard screws changed previously and a joint on one side along the barrel 6.5 cm x 8 mm wide. NOTE: LAROCHE IN PARIS Jean (son) is an arquebusier who first worked with his father before succeeding him at the Galeries du Louvre.