Description

Combination safe (5 digits) in rosewood and gilt brass marquetry, decorated with a monogram on the lid framed by stylized leaf motifs, signed Th. Année* cabinetmaker Fabrique de Nécessaires, 18 rue Chapon Paris, Napoleon III period 19th century. This safe is in good general condition. It is pierced with holes underneath to fix it to a piece of furniture. The combination will be given only to the buyer (the system works). Please note: some accidents on the brass (elements are peeling off in places), crack on the lid, some scratches and wear from time, look carefully at the photos.

* Théodore Année was awarded a bronze medal at the Exhibition of French Industrial Products in 1844. In 1856, he took over the CHABERT house, 22 rue CHAPON before selling it to COIGNARD in 1863. Dimensions Dimensions
