Description

Nice large earthenware vase or planter, "the wader fishing" by Keller and Guerin in Lunéville. Really a very beautiful quality for this ceramic vase where we see a wader catching a small fish in a few centimeters of water. Many details with also beautiful water irises and a decoration of vines in another reserve of the vase. Very great finesse of the decoration, the whole is enhanced with gold. Beautiful size: 26 cm in height and diameter, circa 1900. Very good condition, tiny firing hair under the base (original), see last photo, really nothing... Sublime ceramic, very beautiful finesse.
